Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds

Frequently Asked Questions

This document contains answers to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) regarding the Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (SLFRF, or Fiscal Recovery Funds) program. The 2022 final rule became effective April 1, 2022. On December 29, 2022, Congress amended the SLFRF program in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023 (2023 CAA) to provide state, local, territorial and Tribal governments more flexibility to use SLFRF funds to provide emergency relief from natural disasters, build critical transportation infrastructure, and support community development. On August 10, 2023, Treasury released an interim final rule implementing these new eligible uses; this interim final rule was published in the Federal Register on September 20, 2023.

Generally, the 2023 CAA did not alter the existing eligible uses, and recipients may continue to use SLFRF funds in accordance with the 2022 final rule.

In November 2023, Treasury issued the Obligation interim final rule (Obligation IFR) to address recipients' questions and comments regarding the definition of obligation. The Obligation IFR clarifies the definition of "obligation" in Treasury's implementing regulations for the SLFRF program and provides related guidance to give additional flexibility and clarity to recipients to support their use of SLFRF funds.

The following FAQs include existing FAQs that address questions regarding the 2022 final rule, existing FAQs that have been updated to address the new eligible uses discussed in the 2023 interim final rule and the guidance in the Obligation IFR, and new FAQs that address the new eligible uses discussed in the 2023 interim final rule.

Treasury intends to update this document periodically in response to questions received from stakeholders. Previously, this document was named "2022 Final Rule Frequently Asked Questions." The title has been updated to "State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds Frequently Asked Questions."

Two tables are provided below: (1) a revision table to assist in identifying the FAQs that are new or have been updated, including those FAQs that are new or have been updated to address the 2023 interim final rule; and (2) a table of key links to assist in accessing other program information. For general questions about the SLFRF program, please email SLFRF@treasurv.gov.

Answers to frequently asked questions on distribution of SLFRF funds to non-entitlement units of local government (NEUs) can be found in this FAQ supplement.

Answers to frequently asked questions on the taxability and reporting of payments from SLFRF can be found in this FAQ issued by the IRS.

Answers to frequently asked questions that are unique to the 2021 interim final rule remain available at 2021 Interim Final Rule: Frequently Asked Questions.

Key Takeaway from New Treasury Obligation Rule and Guidance

- Local governments can now utilize ARPA funding for personnel costs through December 31, 2026, if the position was established and filled by December 31, 2024.
 - Funds can be reserved for both administrative positions as well as for staff working on allowable ARPA activities/services.
 - Entities must estimate the amount to be used for personnel costs, reserve the funding, and report to US Treasury.
- Funding can be moved between projects if there is a difference between budgeted costs and actual costs after December 31, 2024, so long as both projects were obligated before that date.
 - For example, if one project that was budgeted for $2,000,000 only utilized $1,800,000, the excess $200,000 could be applied to another project where the funding may be needed.
 - Under previous rules, any excess funding would have needed to be returned to Treasury.

Key Takeaway from New Treasury Obligation Rule and Guidance

- While the County cannot generally enter into new contracts after December 31, 2024, it can amend a contract, utilize a change order, or contingency clause to adjust the scope of existing projects.
 - Contract language must allow for amendments, change orders, and/or contingencies.
 - County staff are working to review all contract language to make sure the County can utilize this flexibility as needed.
- County can enter into a replacement contract after December 31, 2024 if a contract is cancelled for cause or convenience, provided the replacement contract is for substantially the same services.
- County can shift projects among categories (e.g., Negative Economic Impacts to Revenue Replacement) after December 31, 2024, if needed.
