Background

- ConnectED Library Challenge, Spring 2015
- White House ConnectED Convening, January 2016
- 60 communities initially implemented school/library partnerships
- Program now led by Urban Library Council

North Carolina School/Library Partnerships

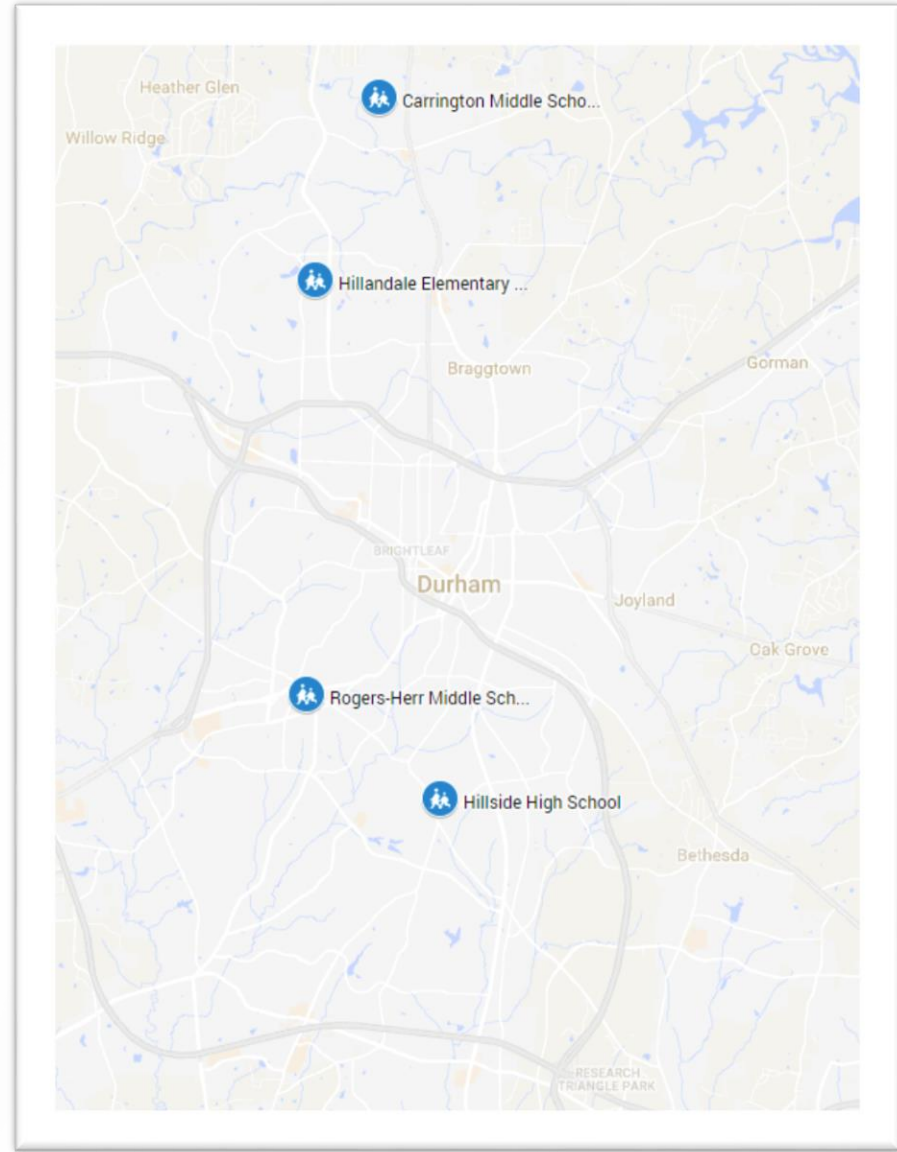

Goals

- To instill a love of reading and promote literacy for all Durham Public School students.
- To increase access to library resources, both print and digital, for all teachers and students.

Pilot Schools

- Hillandale Elementary School
- Carrington Middle School
- Rogers-Herr Middle School
- Hillside High School

Pilot Schools

- Parent/guardians opted-in to program.
- DPS sent student data to DCL via Secure File Transfer Protocol (sFTP).
- DCL created library card numbers for 180+ students.
- Lending rules:
 - Up to five book checkouts
 - No audio-visual checkouts
 - No fines for overdue materials
 - Fees for lost items are incurred

Faculty & Staff Access

- DPS faculty and staff can get a standard DCL library card by presenting their DPS identification at any library location.
 - Regardless of their county-of-residence.
 - Follows normal DCL adult library card lending policies.

Changes in 2018-2019

- Opt-out instead of opt-in
 - Required approval from DPS legal
- Students' ID numbers as their library card number
 - Changes have been made to DCL systems to allow for student ID numbers to be used instead of a library-specific number.

What's Next?

- Update Memorandum of Understanding to reflect new opt-out procedures.
- Determine efficient procedures for student information changes throughout the school year.
- Branding
- Roll out district-wide at start of traditional calendar school year.
- Promote to parents/guardians, teachers, and DPS staff.
