

Agenda Action Form Overview

The Board is requested to approve the Budget Ordinance Amendment No. 20BCC0000053 to recognize $14,500 in UNC Jordan Institute for Family/4th Trimester Project Grant Award

Background/Justification

Durham County Cooperative Extension- Welcome Baby Program partners and collaborates with several programs and organizations in an effort to support Durham County Families in line with Durham County's strategic goal number 2, health and wellbeing for all. Welcome Baby partnered with UNC Jordan Institute for Family / 4th Trimester Project Team for a grant totaling $14, 500. The 4th trimester Project is focused on utilizing patient-provider-community engagement strategies to begin to identify, design and test key elements of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) Postpartum Bundle (Recommendations). Welcome Baby will assist by recruiting and convening groups of to review/reflect on the toolkit process. Patient-provider-community engagement strategies to begin to identify, design and test key elements of the ACOG Postpartum Bundle (Recommendations), including the following activities. The total cost for FY19/20 will be $14,500 with funds rolling over into FY/2021 since the project is slated to run until September 2020.

The primary goals of this initiative are to:

- Recruit new moms to participate in the initiative
- Convene groups of mothers to review/reflect on the toolkit process

Policy Impact

The agenda item is consistent with the historical Board of County Commissioner support for efficient and visionary government and the promotion of health and well-being for all Durham County.

Procurement Background

N/A

Fiscal Impact

The amount is $14,500 and $9,000 of the amount will contributed towards the program's employee salaries and benefits, reducing Durham County's financial burden for the duration of the program by $9,000.

Recommendation

The County Manager recommends that the Board approve Budget Ordinance Amendment No. Budget Ordinance Amendment No. 20BCC0000053 to recognize $14,500 in UNC Jordan Institute for Family/4th Trimester Project Grant Award